From the desk of Pastor Rohde:

A few weeks ago in a sermon we spoke of the importance of declaring the Lord Jesus Christ in our lives. Many people speak of God or the Lord, but the person of whom they speak is not the Lord Jesus Christ. The significance in speaking of Jesus can be seen throughout the growth of the Christian church in the book of Acts. There it is clearly noted that “salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12).

I was reminded of the significance of this the other day when I read an article about a pro basketball player named Stephan Curry. He plays for the Golden State Warriors. They were world champions last year, and Stephan Curry was the most valuable player in the league. This is what he had to say about his career at this point in his life: “I know I have a place in heaven waiting for me because of Jesus, and that’s something no earthly prize or trophy could ever top. First and foremost, I have to thank my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for blessing me with the talents to play this game. I’m His humble servant right now, and I can’t say enough how important my faith is to who I am and how I play the game.”

Stephan Curry is using his position or vocation in life to proclaim the name of Jesus and His salvation. How about you? What does your life and speech say about Jesus Christ? Are you through word and deed revealing the worth and eternal value of the crucified and risen Lord to your children, your neighbors, co-workers, and others?

We are about to enter the season of Lent when we recall Jesus’ journey to the cross, and His death and resurrection. What are we saying to the world about these life-changing events? This is what the Lord says these events are to mean to us. “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me” (Galatians 2:20). “May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Galatians 6:14).

“The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen” (Galatians 6:18).

Lesson in Stewardship: What's Truly Significant in Life

How many of you can list the five wealthiest people in the world? How many of you can list the last five Heisman trophy winners? Who were the last five winners of the Miss American pageant? Can you list the last ten people who won the Nobel or Pulitzer Prize? Who were the last five winners of the Academy Award for best actor and actress? Which major league baseball teams won the last ten World Series? Well, how well did you do at answering these questions?

Now consider these questions. Which two or three teachers had a significant impact upon you in school? What two or three people have helped you through difficult times?

What we see through this little exercise is that what is significant in life is not money, success, or beauty, but the relationships we develop with people and the blessings such relationship can have. God has given us all types of relationships in our homes, neighborhoods, places of work, and within the church. Do not forget to care for, love, and encourage the people God places in your life each day. These people are a blessing from God to minister to you and you to them that "we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

LENT 2016: “PLACES OF THE PASSION”

The scenes of Lent are familiar. The Upper Room, the Garden of Gethsemane, the halls of Pontius Pilate, and the hill of Golgotha—these are the places we remember when we meditate on our Lord’s Passion. Yet when Jesus enters a place, He never leaves it as He found it. The most troubling places in our lives become the most amazing places of God’s grace when Jesus visits them.

For this reason, in our midweek Lenten series, we will read and contemplate Luke’s account of our Lord’s Passion. Each week, we will read a different section of the story; and each week, Luke will take us to a different place, the places of the Passion.

Our focus, however, will not be on these physical places. Instead, we will gaze in wonder on the spiritual work that our Lord does there. Jesus will share His strength in our times of weakness. He will fill us with His praise in the midst of our sorrow. Week after week, we will enter the places of the Passion only to discover our Lord . . . waiting for us . . . willing to share with us a love that was set in place before the foundations of the world.

Plan to come to our midweek Lenten services this year at 7:00pm. Prepare to enter into these places of devotion, for there, your Lord will meet you, sharing with you His wondrous love that saves a fallen world.

From the Gideons International - The Bible contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. Here Paradise is restored, Heaven opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. Christ is its grand subject, our good the design, and the glory of God its end.

It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened at the judgment, and be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the greatest labor, and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents.

BIBLE STUDY OPPORTUNITY!!

The LEG ladies invite you to join them for their study entitled A New Song: Planted by Streams of Water. This study will encourage and uplift you as you reflect on the life-giving stream that never floods, never dries up, a stream that always sings songs of God's wisdom, songs of our Savior's love.

This Bible study is a fresh approach to individual and group study. It provides six weeks of stories—faith narratives—based on biblical psalms. Following each day's reading are questions that will facilitate your own reflection on the Bible. And at the end of each week is a short 5-10 minute video presentation

Each faith narrative was written by a real woman facing real-life issues. Just like you. Each author found help, encouragement, and direction for her life from God's Word and shares her stories in her words. These stories, new songs if you will, will help you weave His Word into the unique melody of your life

LEG meets on the odd-numbered Sunday evenings (1st, 3rd, and 5th) in the Jerusalem Room at 7pm. Contact the church office (546-2332) to reserve your copy of the study guide. We are looking forward to welcoming you!

February Devotion: "Love, the Greatest Gift"

These three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. 1Corinthians 13:13

God is love. The supreme self-revelation of God is to be seen in the love of Christ. So it is not surprising that Saint Paul declares love to be the greatest of all things. It is the one thing that abides forever. Necessary as faith is in this life, love is greater because faith will end in seeing. Precious as hope is, love is greater because hope will end in fulfillment. Love is greater than all other gifts and blessings. It is greater than eloquence, than prophecy, than all learning.

See how powerful love is and how wonderful are its effects! Love teaches us to be patient and kind and generous. It keeps us from being envious and arrogant and proud. It makes for courtesy and unselfishness. It puts the best construction on everything. It dwells on the good rather than on the evil.

Christian love is the greatest civilizing and refining agency. No matter how great one's knowledge or power or fame, unless love is the moving force, no life is really good or great. The abundant life of which Jesus speaks is a life that is "rooted and established in love" and that knows "the love of Christ ... that surpasses knowledge" (Ephesians 3:17). Whoever lives in this love is a truly spiritual person.

PRAYER: Dear Father, grant us an ever larger appreciation of the wonders of Your love in Jesus Christ. Amen.
